The Florida Chamber has put out educational resources regarding Florida Amendment 3 - Save Our Home From Excessive Property Tax, which will appear on the ballot in November. The resources provide great insight into the current system, proposed changes, and potential impacts of the passage of Amendment 3. The documents can be accessed via the links below, or by visiting floridachamber.com.

The first is their Property Tax Primer which can be found here: Florida Property Tax Primer White Paper – Florida Chamber of Commerce. This document provides an overview of Florida's property tax system, current revenue from homestead levies, and the potential impact of the amendment.

The second is their brief on the current law and the proposed changes and can be found here: Property Tax Amendment Brief: Current Law vs. Proposed Changes – Florida Chamber of Commerce. This document offers a side-by-side comparison of the current law and how the amendment would change them. It also includes the list of protected core services, and a timeline for implementation should the amendment pass.
