KELLY KWIATEK

MARVIN SAMUELS MEMORIAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

Kelly Parsons Kwiatek serves as Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of Halifax Health, a leading multi-hospital healthcare system providing a full continuum of care to the communities it serves. As a member of Halifax Health's executive leadership team, she advises the CEO and Board of Commissioners and oversees the organization's legal, compliance, clinical and claims risk management, insurance and self-insurance, government affairs, and philanthropic functions. She joined Halifax Health in 2019 after a 15-year career as a shareholder with the law firm Cobb Cole, where she focused on commercial litigation.

In private practice, Mrs. Kwiatek was Board Certified in Labor & Employment Law by the Florida Bar, earned an AV Preeminent Rating from Martindale-Hubbell, and received numerous honors recognizing her professional excellence and community service.

She graduated magna cum laude from Syracuse University with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Musical Theater and earned her Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law.

Mrs. Kwiatek has been appointed by the Governor to serve in key leadership roles, including as a Trustee for Daytona State College and as a Commissioner on the Judicial Nominating Commission for Florida's Seventh Judicial Circuit. She also serves on the Board of Directors for the Florida Chamber of Commerce and Daytona Regional Chamber of Commerce and is an active member of the Halifax Area Civic League, Checkered Flag Committee, Volusia County Bar Association, Volusia County Charter Review Commission, and the Endowment Committee for St. James Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Kwiatek is married to Jarrett, and they are proud parents of Gavin and Olivia.
